

Pupil Voice trip to see the Mayor and two city councillors

Last July our Pupil Voice representatives visited the Civic Centre and met with two councillors and the Lord Mayor to learn about how Southampton City Council works. They were able to discuss their job roles, how councillors and mayors are elected, as well as local issues. We also discussed both Harefield's role as a Unicef Rights Respecting School as well as the city's role as a Unicef Rights Respecting Council. We were very proud of our children and received this email from Councillor Paffey:

"Thanks so much for bringing the children in to visit the Civic Centre yesterday; it was lovely to meet you and the children, and we all enjoyed answering their questions and chatting to them. They did Harefield school proud with their interest in the council and Mayor's Parlour, as well as their exemplary behaviour and friendliness. Harefield's Pupil Voice council is a real credit to the school!"
